Encourage your child to continue reading a few verses from the Bible each day. You could purchase a child's devotional book that includes suggested Bible readings.

Discovery 8:7

Review

Congratulations to you, too, parents. Most clubbers who finish books do so with parental encouragement – so we know you worked hard, too.

week two

Your child is done with his book, but still has a few more weeks of club. Suggest he do some of the Silver and Gold sections, if he hasn't done them already.

week three

Do you have a younger child who has some more verses to memorize before finishing his book? Suggest that your child help her younger brother or sister.

week four

The next step? To watch your child receive his book award at Awards Night.

Thank the Lord that she has learned God's Word, truths that will help her for the rest of her life. And thank YOU for being parents who care about the spiritual growth of your child.
