

Looking ahead!

Keep in mind that these sections may take more time or planning to complete!

Challenge 1:7

Bring two friends to club.

Challenge 3:7

Show love to God by helping three people.

Challenge 4:3

Research a children's ministry in another country.

Challenge 4:7

Share your testimony.

Challenge 5:7

Do something for a missionary's child.

Challenge 6:3

Pray, serve or give money to a missionary.

Challenge 6:7

Do something to be a good example.

Challenge 7:1

Serve at your church.

Challenge 8:6

Do something to honor your parents.

week two

Challenge

1:0, 1:1 & 1:2

Challenge 1:0

Parent Page

Be sure to read the Parent Pages at the beginning of each new challenge. You'll find helpful memory tips and encouragement for you and your clubber. (By the way, we're calling your son or daughter a "clubber" now - "child" sounds too young for a fifth- or sixth-grader!)

Challenge 1:1

Review

Your son or daughter has 56 sections to say this year. Offer your constant encouragement and give rewards and motivators along the way. For example, plan a special activity or treat each time your clubber completes a challenge (there are eight total).

Challenge 1:2

2 Timothy 2:15

Did YOU know the name "Awana" comes from 2 Timothy 2:15? (Approved Workmen Are Not Ashamed)

week one

Welcome to T&T!

week three

Challenge

1:3 & 1:4

Proverbs 30:5-6

Challenge 1:3

Are you eager to help your clubber succeed in Awana? Do you want to build the habits of a successful Awana parent? Do you want to know more about Awana club programs? Pick up a copy of the book Awana Starts at Home at www.awana.org/store.

Challenge 1:4

2 Peter 1:16

Review: Psalm 119:42b

Encourage your clubber to write all her verses in phrases and to capitalize KEY words. Seeing the verses this way should help her to learn them quickly.

week four

Challenge

1:5 & 1:6

Challenge 1:5

SearchSite

Although your clubber is great at doing SearchSites by himself, you could do them together as a family. That would give you an opportunity to make sure he understands what he reads and to add any facts you'd like him to know.

1 John 1:1

Challenge 1:6

Review: 2 Timothy 2:15

If your clubber does one Challenge per month, she should be done with the book by the end of the year - no problem!
