

Welcome to T&T!

Looking ahead!

Here are some things that you need to be aware of because they take more time.

Challenge 1:7

Your clubber needs to invite two friends to club.

Challenge 2:7

Your clubber needs to interview a married couple.

Challenge 4:7

Your clubber needs to design a devotional book.

Challenge 5:7

Your clubber needs to help a friend do a chore or learn something.

Challenge 7:7

Your clubber needs to write a letter to a mission organization.

week two

Challenge

1:0, 1:1 & 1:2

Challenge 1:0

Parent Page

Be sure to read the Parent Pages at the beginning of each new challenge. You'll find helpful memory tips and encouragement for you and your clubber. (By the way, we're calling your son or daughter a "clubber" now – "child" sounds too young for a fifth- or sixth-grader!)

Challenge 1:1

Review

Your son or daughter has 56 sections to say this year. Your clubber will need your encouragement all through the year.

Book Four has a lot of review. Be prepared to help your clubber as he works through the book.

In addition to reviewing Book Three, most sections include a review verse(s) – a verse your clubber already learned in Book Four. Including this review will help your clubber remember all these verses for the long haul.

Challenge 1:2

Joshua 24:15b

Review: Ephesians 1:14

This book has a lot of difficult verses, but your clubber is a great memorizer and shouldn't have any problems. Encourage her to work on her verses for five to ten minutes every day.

week three

Challenge

1:3 & 1:4

Deuteronomy 5:16

Challenge 1:3

Psalm 127:3

Review: Joshua 24:15b

Family Discussion: How can we work together as a family?

Challenge 1:4

SearchSite

Even though your clubber wrote down the correct SearchSite answers, make sure he understands what he's written.

week four

Challenge

1:5 & 1:6

Challenge 1:5

Proverbs 4:2-4

Review: Psalm 127:3

Here are some commandments for sons and daughters – listen to your parents. Remember to give instructions with love and concern.

Ephesians 6:1-2

Challenge 1:6

Review: Deuteronomy 5:16

Family Discussion: How do you honor your parents?
